Dear Mr. Kent

I am pleased to inform you that The Judge Advocate General has approved your application for Direct Appointment. As a non-attorney applicant, your appointment as an Air Force officer is contingent upon the completion of your legal licensing requirements. Your appointment is also contingent on you being deemed medically qualified for military service—a determination made by the Air Education and Training Command Surgeon General's Office. You may expect to wait approximately three to six months from the date you are medically qualified or licensed to practice law, whichever is later, to enter active duty. The Judge Advocate General reserves the right to unilaterally delay or rescind your appointment.

Once you receive this package, please call (240) 612-5091 to receive further instructions regarding your medical exam. We will let you know the Surgeon General's determination regarding your medical qualification as soon as we receive it. Medical qualification is not automatic, and medical conditions requiring a waiver may result in longer processing times. Waivers are not guaranteed.

Once you are both medically qualified and licensed to practice, our office will contact you regarding your entry onto active duty. While we make every effort to assign you to one of the choices listed on your preference sheet, we may not have an opening available at any of those locations. If that is the case, we will let you know what assignment is available.

If you decide not to accept this appointment, please notify us immediately. Additionally, please call (240) 612-5091 to notify us of any changes in your address, phone number, or email. I congratulate you on your selection and look forward to you joining our Corps.

Sincerely

DUSTIN M. TIPLING, Major, USAF
